Miami Young Agents Committee

Application for Membership

Who can join the Miami Young Agents?

- Anyone in the insurance industry who is under 40 years old OR has less than 5 years in the industry. It's not just for agents and it's not just for the young. We would love to have CSRs, company reps, underwriters, adjustors and direct industry associates involved.

Why was the Miami YAC formed?

- Miami Young Agents was formed to create a fun, social avenue for young people to become more active in the insurance industry. We want to create an environment where the future leaders of our industry can get involved and get to know each other now.

Is there a difference between FAIA YAC and Miami Young Agents?

- The two organizations both launched about two years ago and work closely together to create opportunities for young insurance professionals in Florida. FAIA's YAC is part of the Florida Association of Insurance Agents. That organization is based in Tallahassee, is statewide and offers a lot of great opportunities, including annual conventions in Tallahassee, a strong emphasis on lobbying and governmental involvement, as well as affiliation with the National Young Agents Council. Here in Miami-Dade County, our emphasis is more on networking and local camaraderie.

2007 Membership Benefits include:

- Discounted (usually free) admittance to all Miami Young Agents events.
- Networking with our industry associates.
- On-going relationship building with other agents who have similar challenges.
- Camaraderie with future leaders of the insurance industry!
- Exposure to current insurance programs including Invest and CPCU and other designations.

Is there a cost?

- Of course there's a cost, but it's only $40 per year. This gives us a small working budget to help put on great events. The lion's share of the budget comes from sponsorships.
